PROFILE

I have been engaged in all kinds of art my whole life. Not that I had a choice- with an artistic family there's nowhere to run! But I shouldn't be complaining- if you name something in the art department, chances are I can do it. I am currently a Web design and Graphic advertisement student at New Bulgarian university (not that being a painter isn't rewarding). I am mostly interested in graphic design- it's just coming more naturally to me. I am passionate to learn and grow as a designer and I really look forward to finding a job that helps me achieve my goals!
